The Western Wonder Wins the Rich Junior Champion.

Firenzi Defeats Kingston for the Champion Stakes.

Telie Doe, Hypocrite and Rupert Win Other Races.

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. MONMOUTH PARK, Aug. 11. - Champion day! Air and earth never conspired to better grace fields of racers than on the opening of the Monmouth Park second summer meeting. Only the flags at half mast for gallant Phil Sheridan, in life President of the Chicago Jockey Club, gave a hint of soberness to the gay scene.

The crowds on the early boats and trains, nerally sacred to bookies and other intimates of the game, augured the tremendous crush later on. The sport commenced with a seven-furlong dash for all ages, which was won by Telie Doe, Little Minch second, in the very fast time of 1. 28%.

Passengers on the Cape Charles had the excite-ment of witnessing a police raid. Capt. Smith and twenty detectives were on board, and as soon as the "under five or over seven" games got to work, the detectives, one standing in front of each stand, upset them with their feet and captured the Nine captives were put in front of the boilerroom; then, as the crowd surged about, the prisoners were put in the boiler-room. Off Coney Island the patrol came up as agreed, and all boat at once. When they got back but four of the prisoners were still in charge. One gambler was captured under the boiler fifteen minutes later, and captured under the benef fifteen minutes later, and another was found semoking a eighr in the bow.

The bookmakers' regular drawing for positions was held this morning. Sixty-two pencillers put up $100 each to go on with their business. The lucky ones are Irving & Co., Philip Daly & Co., J. L. Anderson & Co., Hakelberg, and H. O. Price & Co.

Every crack two-year-old in all America, barring French Park, was in for the $25,000 Junior Champtonships. Ransom, kasson and the Belle were erry scratchest, while Lucky Baidwin decided to start Catiente, and the little Californian, McCarthy, added Sorrento. Messrs, Davis & Hall substituted Verdeur for Vengeur.

It took lots of time to start the impatient field of fourteen. Once Mr. Caldwell had to get down and tak to them personally; but when they did go off it was in a bunch. Reporter only getting rather the worst of it.

The Faverdale coit took up the running at once, a length before Diablo, Tipstaff, Proctor Knott and Oregon. The Western crack was coming strong, and captured the lead at the stable turn. Proctor Knott was first into the homestretch, a half length before Diablo.

The race was no race in the straight; Proctor Knott had it too surely, but the Faverdale coit, Fresno, Salvator and Oregon battled for the place. Proctor Knott won by three lengths, the Faverdale coit getting second, a short head before Fresno. The time was remarkably good for such a field. It was 1.14.

The time was remarkably good for such a field. It was 1.14.
The first quarter in 0.23½, the half in 0.47½. The record is 1.13, and the best at Monmouth is 1.13½, Monsy went on Santalene at the tempting odus of 8 to 1 and 10 to 1 aga nst, as if it grew on bashes. Some people thought it was Western day, and because Proctor Knott and Hypocrite had won Santalene must also.

The betting was 2 to 1 on about the mare, and 8 to 5 against could be got about Kingston. Santalene set out to make the running, and was suffered to lead for a mile, when the others came by as if she was standing still.

Firenzl's victory over Kingston was of the casiest sort; whenever McLaughlin got anywhere at all dangerously near Garrison stopped looking around and let go his mount's head, when she at once stepped a salf dozen lengths or so in advance.

McLaughlin pulled up at the finish disgusted as well as beaten. The speedy filly could have beaten the record as well as not.
